LADY JACKET SOCCER BLOG

Sept. 1, 2015

Hi everyone! My name is Carly Gregory and I am a senior athletic training major from Springfield, Ohio. It is my pleasure to be writing the blog this year and attempting to convey what it is really like to be a part of the Cedarville University women's soccer team.

We all arrived on campus and started the fun off with our annual cookout at Coach Mac and Bonnie's house on August 12. The food was delicious and team bonding began as the freshmen strutted down the runway (Coach's sunroom), talked into a microphone (a TV remote), and told us about themselves. We celebrated summer victories (#hannagotabae) and caught each other up on all of the life events that happened in the forever-long three months we were apart.

The very next day we had CUWS Christmas - an exciting time when we get to check out and try on all of our new gear. Bri really brought the house down this year and our reservations about switching to Under Armour were blown away as soon as we pulled on our new sweat pants and hoodie combination. I would like to take a second to give her a personal thank you on behalf of all of the tall people on the team (myself and Chandra)...everything fits in the length department; it is a miracle.

For the following week we knew little but soccer practice, sleeping, and eating. We completed all of our fitness testing and the seniors got together for a group cry sesh because we were distraught to be done with them. (HA.) On Sunday we surprised Coach Mac and Roper at church and sat together as a big family before returning to Cedarville to rally the troops and depart for a clinic. After we pulled out, we quickly discovered that something was wrong with our beloved athletic bus. Although Coach Mac "had the pedal on the floor" we were unfortunately only going 60 mph. Thankfully, this did not hold us back, and Coach valiantly continued to stomp on the accelerator until we arrived safely. We had an absolute blast while we ran the camp with the men's team and wrapped the evening up with a fantastic skit and interview to convey the Gospel to the children.

Finally, we reached our first GAMEDAY. We have since competed in scrimmages against Findlay, Ashland, and Ohio Dominican. Although we have not had the outcomes we desired, we have found many positive take aways from our play. We have enjoyed the stiff competition greatly, as it will only propel us to higher levels of play as we rise to the challenge of our opponents. On an even brighter, chocolatey side, our rides home have not been disappointing. In an absolutely smashing show of love and devotion to CUWS, we have already had Mahek cupcakes TWICE. We have also been showered with Oreo balls and cookies to satiate our raging sweet tooth... sweet teeth? Whatever. The point is we adore dessert and we would love for our beloved fans to keep it coming.

This upcoming week offers many excitements as we will face off with Urbana University in our home opener on Thursday at 7 pm. We will also play West Virginia Wesleyan on Saturday at 2 pm. If two games weren't enough to freak out about, the annual camp out will be taking place sometime this weekend. It would be unwise for me to disclose the date due to the fact that our men's team has previously attempted to crash this event. When I say attempted, I mean all plans of scaring 20 sleeping girls in a tent were demolished when one of our very own tackled (with impeccable form unmatched even in the NFL) and de-masked (quite viciously, I might add) an imposing gorilla. Men, you are warned.

Ultimately, we were able to spend much time focusing on our team pillars: Christ-centered, team focus, work ethic, humility, and legacy this preseason. It is amazing to see how God is already clearly working in the hearts of the girls on our team, and we look forward with eager anticipation to see how he will use us this season to bring glory to His name.

We hope that you will be able to come and support us at our upcoming games, and if not, please enjoy the live video stream that our wonderful SID department produces for our far-away fans.

Until next week.

Carly Gregory is a senior defender from Springfield, OH and a Dean's List student majoring in athletic training.

"We Back the Jackets!"

TODAY'S GAME

The Cedarville University women's soccer team hosts the West Virginia Wesleyan College Bobcats in a non-conference contest today at Yellow Jacket Field.

The Lady Jackets are 1-0 on the year after a season-opening 5-0 win over visiting Urbana on Thursday night.

The Bobcats, ranked #23 in the NSCAA Preseason Poll and NCAA II members of the Mountain East Conference (MEC), are opening their 2015 season in today's contest.

John McGillivray, who is in his 43rd season coaching soccer at CU - 18th with the women (148-149-28), is optimistic about the 2015 squad. "A couple keys for a successful season are keeper Hannah Harris, our midfield is in tact and Carly Gregory leads a solid defensive unit. We are also hoping for several of our freshmen to see significant playing time."

Hannah Harris

The Lady Jackets felt the bite of the injury bug in 2014, losing dynamic offensive force Jacoby Ziegler 13 games into a promising season.

Ziegler was the G-MAC's Offensive Player of the Year in 2012 and 2013; a return at full strength could be a true x-factor. She still managed to score seven goals before being sidelined and currently has 100 career points - second all-time at CU.

Grace Miorelli erupted with 10 goals and 10 assists to rank as the league's third-best scorer last year. She currently has 58 career points (21 goals, 16 assists), ranking fourth all-time in the G-MAC's young history.

Cedarville had three of the G-MAC's top six scorers, including graduated all-conference standouts Kristie Wolff and Elise Hurley.

West Virginia Wesleyan, under the direction of fifth-year Head Coach Patrick Holguin (47-19-11), is coming off a banner year in which they advanced to the NCAA II Sweet 16. However, the Bobcats lost 14 seniors from the 2014 team that finished 13-5-3.

Senior Keena Moreta returns as the squad's leading scorer with seven goals and an assist last season. Classmate Colette Biondi added six goals and a pair of assists to the Bobcat offensive attack.

Keena Moreta

Today's contest is the first-ever meeting in women's soccer between the two schools.

LAST TIME ON THE PITCH - 9/3/15

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - Jacoby Ziegler netted three goals and Hanna Harris became the school's all-time leader in shutouts as the Lady Jackets opened with a 5-0 result over Urbana.

Ziegler was one of four players to figure in on the scoring. She added an assist to her evening performance.

Grace Miorelli tallied a goal and two assists. Alyssa Maillefer found the net in her collegiate debut and fellow freshman Creslyn Van Dyck chipped in two assists.

Harris, in the meantime, quietly posted her 17th career shutout to become the school's all-time leader. She had shared the top mark with Alysia Bennett (2009-10, 2012).

Harris made one save early in the first half. She lowered her career-leading goals against average to 0.94.

Numbers Game:

- CU dominated the shot column: 17-4 overall and 8-1 on goal.
- Ziegler moved into second place on CU's all-time scoring list with 43 goals and 14 assists for 100 points. Jane Adams (2000-04) is #1 with 53-44-150.
- The Jackets lead the series vs. Urbana at 9-5-2 including 5-0-1 in the last six meetings.
- CU shutout the Knights at home for the fifth straight time.

HEAD COACH JOHN MCGILLIVRAY

John McGillivray is one of the most well-respected soccer coaches in the state of Ohio and has been coaching soccer at Cedarville University since 1974.

McGillivray has been the head coach of the Lady Jackets since 1998. He served as the Cedarville men's head coach from 1974 through 1997.

Coupled with the 147 wins with the women, McGillivray has 362 total soccer victories at CU. His 300th overall win came in a 5-0 decision over Grace on Aug. 28, 2008. He picked up his 100th victory with the Lady Jackets in a 2-1 result at Point Park on Oct. 17, 2009.

McGillivray has enjoyed eight winning seasons with the Lady Jackets including a best-ever 15-7 mark in 2013. CU led the Great Midwest Athletic Conference with a 9-1 regular season mark and McGillivray was voted G-MAC Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished 13-8-2 in 2004, won NCCAA Midwest Region championship, and secured an automatic berth in the NCCAA National Tournament. The 2000 club had a 12-7-2 record and made the school's first-ever NCCAA championship appearance in women's soccer.

McGillivray and his teams have long been recognized for their sportsmanlike behavior. His Lady Jackets twice received the Fair Play Team Award from the American Midwest Conference for their exemplary conduct on the field.

He was presented the first-ever Distinguished Merit Award in 1990 by the Ohio Collegiate Soccer Officials Association. The National Intercollegiate Soccer Officials Association honored him in 1992 with their National Merit Award.

The Springfield, Ohio native led his men's teams to eight Mid-Ohio Conference titles, five NCCAA District III banners, three NAIA District 22 championships, and one NAIA Area IV crown which carried with it a trip to the NAIA Nationals in 1974. He guided his squad to five NCCAA National Tournament appearances, a pair of NCCAA National Runner-Up finishes and he was chosen NCCAA National Coach of the Year in 1981.

McGillivray served at all levels of NAIA soccer including president of the NAIA Soccer Coaches Association from 1983 through 1985. He was inducted into the Cedarville University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1991 and the NAIA Hall of Fame in 1993.

McGillivray, who is an associate professor in the Department of Kinesiology and Allied Health, is a 1970 graduate of Cedarville College, and he earned his master's degree in 1976 from the University of Dayton. John and his wife, Bonnie, reside in Cedarville and have five children and 16 grandchildren.

GREAT MIDWEST ATHLETIC CONFERENCE - WOMEN'S SOCCER

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC), was approved by the NCAA Division II Membership Committee in February of 2012 as a member conference and earned active status in July of 2013, after completing an educational assessment program in 2012-13. The conference began competition as the 24th active NCAA Division II conference in 2013-14.

The G-MAC features both active and reclassifying members from Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and West Virginia. Charter members of the G-MAC included Cedarville University, Kentucky Wesleyan College, Trevecca Nazarene University, and Ursuline College.

The G-MAC expanded with the inclusion of Alderson Broaddus University, Davis & Elkins College, Ohio Valley University, and Salem International University as active DII members. Recently, Malone University has announced it will be joining the G-MAC in 2016-17 as a full member, and then the University of Findlay, Hillsdale College, Lake Erie College, Ohio Dominican University, and Walsh University will join in 2017-18.

The G-MAC, headquartered in the Indianapolis metro area, will sponsor 18 championships in 2015-16 as an active NCAA Division II conference.
